

THE INNOVATION IN POLITICS INSTITUTE

Who we are and what we do

The Innovation in Politics Institute is an independent, non-partisan, and mission-driven organisation dedicated to strengthening democracy in Europe and advocating for the optimal framework to foster free, equitable, prosperous, and peaceful societies.

In pursuit of its mission, the institute actively assists public institutions in becoming more open and efficient. Providing valuable guidance to political leaders and political organisations, it enables them to make informed decisions and take effective actions. Moreover, the institute empowers business leaders and corporations, encouraging them to contribute to solving societal challenges and promoting the greater good.

In addition to their advisory role, the Innovation in Politics Institute takes on an entrepreneurial role by constructing platforms and networks aimed at advancing democracy, politics and policy. Their comprehensive approach embodies a commitment to driving positive change and progress in the field of politics and governance.
