

THE INNOVATION
IN POLITICS
INSTITUTE

We apply innovations in politics
to strengthen democracy in Europe and beyond.

WHO WE ARE

The Innovation in Politics Institute is a mission-driven organisation dedicated to advancing democracy in Europe and beyond. We drive practical, results-oriented initiatives to tackle complex challenges that no stakeholder can solve alone.

By developing multi-stakeholder collaborations, offering training and networking opportunities, and recognising outstanding political work, we empower political professionals to create impactful solutions. Through our Mission Partnerships, we deliver transformative solutions in the public interest.

With offices in Vienna and Berlin and an active Europe-wide network, we shape the future of democratic governance.

Established: 2016

Office: Vienna, Berlin

Partners: Martina Füllrutter (CEO), Edward Strasser (CEO), Helfried Carl, Jürgen Gangoly, Patricia Kahane, Elke Zuckermann

WHAT WE DO

Mission Partnerships

We build mission-driven partnerships between governments, businesses, and civil society to strengthen democracy by addressing challenges and solving specific problems that no one could solve on their own.

Best Practice Exchange

Whether in government, business, or civil society, we specialise in identifying innovators with cutting-edge solutions to complex problems, who are willing to share their know-how and networks in support of your work.

Expert Consulting

With an international team of strategic advisors, former political campaigners, diplomats, entrepreneurs, and researchers, the Innovation in Politics Institute can help turn bold, impactful ideas into reality.
